- promotes a uniform occupational profile
- strengthens genealogy in its position as an ancillary historical discipline
- collaborates with various archives and genealogical organizations

Our service

Each of our members is specialized in the genealogical research of a particular region and/or a specific, at times spatially independent, subject. For those people who are looking for specialist advice and do not know who to turn to, we provide the service of forwarding their queries to one or more genealogists specialized in their region or topic of interest. You can then be assured that you will be put in contact with someone with a suitable degree of professionalism, integrity, and scientific excellence.

Our standards

All our members are pledged to uphold a mandatory code of conduct with respect to their clients and the quality of their research.

Membership

If you work as a qualified genealogist and are interested in becoming a member of our organization, please contact us (see back of the flyer).
